

The fragile flower, seems it's so slim, yet has such force and life in it's small blossom, that with its beauty she is - the queen of the field!

The nature's own maturity, the sky's blue color - when the sun warms us, strokes us with it's sunlight, and kisses the flower's blossom, and then it blooms with all it's beauty!