

Pendant Morning Star - this bird was given this name because Morning Star was the goddess of dawn of the ancient Balts, a greeter of the sun, a protector of light and a guardian of a new day. She is a beautiful girl chasing after the first sunbeams and sparkles jumping on the calm surface of the lakes early in the morning. ☐ It is said, that her favorite animals were a cow and a playful mare. Morning Star is a ruler of sun rays and light. Our Morning Star is shimmering with beauty, its surface is mirror polished, reflecting light...